

Application for additional default insurance — DBD, Accumulation 2, Accumulation 1

AVOID PROCESSING DELAYS

Check you're using the latest version of this form. Compare the issue date at the bottom of this page with the version available at unisuper.com.au/forms.

Who should use this form?

Members who have automatically received 1 unit of default cover and would like an additional 1 or 2 units of Death and/or Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) cover.

Members who have already elected to receive additional default cover can't use this form to apply for more cover (to apply for more cover, log in to your account online).

For Defined Benefit Division (DBD) members only: Any insurance cover you received when you joined, or that you apply for on this form, is in addition to any inbuilt benefits you may already have. DBD members are not eligible to apply for IP cover.

Insurer

Insurance cover is provided by TAL Life Limited (ABN 70 050 109 450, AFSL 237848).

APPLYING FOR EXTRA COVER

If you want to apply for more insurance cover than is allowed for on this form:

- complete and submit this form, and then
- log in to your account online, go to the 'insurance' section and apply for your extra cover. You may need to provide evidence of your health to our Insurer as part of your application.

SECTION 2 — Additional default insurance election

Before you complete this form, please read the Insurance in your super document for detailed information on the eligibility criteria applicable and the terms, features, and conditions of Death, TPD and Income Protection cover provided through the Fund.

You may elect to receive up to two additional units of default cover (additional default cover) without providing evidence of your health to our Insurer, provided:

- you're eligible for, have received, and haven't cancelled your default cover, and
- you haven't already elected to receive additional default cover.

Any additional default cover you receive will be the same type of cover as your default cover.

Privacy statement

We recognise the importance of protecting your personal information and are committed to complying with our privacy law obligations.

We collect your personal information to administer your account, ensure you're eligible for insurance cover, provide you with UniSuper membership benefits, services and products, verify your identity and improve our products and services. You consent to our collecting sensitive information about you, where collecting that information is reasonably necessary for us to perform one or more of our functions or activities. We usually collect personal and sensitive information directly from you, however, it may also be collected from third parties, such as your employer.

We may also collect this information from you because we're required or authorised by or under an Australian law or a court/tribunal order to collect that information.

If you don't provide this information, we may not be able to administer your account, provide you with a product or service or you may be disadvantaged in some other way.

We may disclose your information to any service provider we engage (for example mail-houses, auditors, insurers, actuaries, lawyers and research consultants) to carry out or help us provide your membership benefits, services and products. This includes overseas entities. The countries we may disclose personal information to are Japan, Canada and the United States of America. Where information is transferred overseas, we'll seek to ensure the recipient of the data has security systems to prevent misuse, loss or unauthorised disclosure in line with Australian laws and standards.

Our Privacy Policy contains information about how you can access any personal information we hold, how to correct your information and how to make a complaint about a breach of the Privacy Act. It's available at unisuper.com.au or by calling us on 1800 331 685.
