

Severe financial hardship

This fact sheet outlines when benefits may be released on the grounds of severe financial hardship.

There are two ways you could be granted an early release of your super benefit on the grounds of severe financial hardship.

CLAIM TYPE 1

- you're under your preservation age (see table on page 2 of this fact sheet) and,
- you've been in receipt of a Commonwealth income support payment, continuously for the last 26 weeks, and
- you're unable to meet reasonable and immediate family living expenses. Immediate family living expenses are expenses that are due to be paid and which cannot be paid by the member because of financial hardship.

CLAIM TYPE 2

- you've reached preservation age and 39 weeks (see table on page 2 of this fact sheet), and
- you've received a Commonwealth income support payment for a cumulative period of 39 weeks after reaching preservation age, and
- you aren't gainfully employed on a full-time or part-time basis on the date of your application to the Trustee.

How much can I withdraw?

CLAIM TYPE 1

You can apply for a single withdrawal amount in any 12-month period of between $1,000 (or your account balance if it's less than $1,000) and $10,000.

CLAIM TYPE 2

There are no limits to the amount you can apply to withdraw.

How to provide evidence of Commonwealth income support payments

You can authorise us to confirm electronically with Centrelink your receipt of a Commonwealth income support payment—you'll need to provide us with your Centrelink Reference Number (CRN).

If you receive Commonwealth income support from a Government department other than Centrelink and wish to apply for an early release of your super benefits on the grounds of severe financial hardship, please call us on 1800 331 685.

Commonwealth income support payments include:

- an income support supplement, a service pension, a social security pension, a social security benefit (other than Austudy or Youth Allowance if you're in full-time study)
- a drought relief payment or exceptional circumstances relief payment under the Farm Household Support Act, or
- a payment from the Community Development Employment Projects Scheme.
- If you're not sure if you qualify, or to access your CRN, contact Centrelink directly.

Preservation age

Your preservation age depends on when you were born.

YOUR DATE OF BIRTH	PRESERVATION AGE
Before 1 July 1960	55
1 July 1960 – 30 June 1961	56
1 July 1961 – 30 June 1962	57
1 July 1962 – 30 June 1963	58
1 July 1963 – 30 June 1964	59
1 July 1964 or after	60

Compassionate grounds

If you're not eligible for release of your super on severe financial hardship grounds, you may be eligible to apply to the ATO for release on compassionate grounds, including for:

- medical treatment and medical transport for you or a dependant
- palliative care for you or a dependant
- making a payment on a loan so you don't lose your home
- modifying your home or vehicle, or buying disability aids for you or a dependant because of a severe disability
- expenses associated with a death, funeral or burial for a dependant.

For more information, refer to our Compassionate grounds application form at unisuper.com.au/forms.

How will my payment be taxed?

The following table outlines how tax may apply to your withdrawal. Also refer to the Preservation age table in the previous column.

UNDER YOUR PRESERVATION AGE	REACHED YOUR PRESERVATION AGE	OVER AGE 60
Taxed up to 22%. Any tax-free components of your super aren't taxed on withdrawal.	You won't pay tax on the taxable component of your super balance up to the low rate cap amount. Any tax-free components of your super aren't taxed on withdrawal. For more information about the low rate cap, read the How super is taxed booklet at unisuper.com.au/pds or contact us.	Generally tax free

You can find the details of your taxable and tax-free super components by logging into your account or checking your most recent Benefit statement.

Proof of identity documents

We're required by law to verify your identity. The quickest way to verify your identity is by logging in to your account. You can also provide certified proof of identity documents with your application.

Refer to the attached Your guide to proof of identity fact sheet for more information.

This information is of a general nature only and includes general advice. It has been prepared without taking into account your individual objectives, financial situation or needs. Before making any decision in relation to your UniSuper membership, you should consider your personal circumstances, the relevant product disclosure statement for your membership category and whether to consult a licensed financial adviser. This information is current as at July 2021 and is based on our understanding of legislation at that date. Information is subject to change. To the extent that this fact sheet contains information which is inconsistent with the UniSuper Trust Deed and Regulations (together the Trust Deed), the Trust Deed will prevail. Your guide to proof of identity

We take looking after your retirement savings very seriously—which is why you need to prove your identity (ID) before making withdrawals or other important changes to your account.

Verify your identity online

Proving your identity online is quick and easy—you'll know as soon as your identity gets verified. Log in at unisuper.com.au/memberonline to get started. Only Australian residents with Australian documents currently living in Australia can verify their identity through MemberOnline.

You'll need one or more of the following valid documents:

- Australian passport
- Australian visa
- Australian citizenship certificate
- Australian birth certificate
- Australian driver's licence
- Medicare card
- Centrelink card
- State and Federal electoral roll details.

Make sure you've updated your current personal details with relevant government agencies before you begin the process of verifying your identity online. We use online government and public databases to securely verify your identity.

Or send us certified copies of your ID

You can also send us certified copies of your ID. The following guide explains the types of documents we can accept and how to ensure they're correctly certified.

ALLOW US TO VERIFY YOUR IDENTITY

In some cases and on some of our forms, we can verify your identity on your behalf if the document(s) you provide haven't been certified correctly or can't be read. All you need to do is give us consent by ticking the box on the applicable form—and we'll try to verify your identity electronically using those documents. We'll let you know if the process wasn't successful.

Why provide your TFN?

Giving us your tax file number (TFN) means we can process rollover and transfer requests to another super fund without additional proof of identity. If your TFN can't be validated, or you want to transfer to a self-managed super fund or organise a benefit payment, you'll still need to give us certified copies of your ID.

Visit unisuper.com.au/memberonline to provide your TFN online.

STEP 1: COLLECT ACCEPTABLE DOCUMENTS

We'll accept either one document from List A or two documents from List B.

LIST A

A certified copy of a:

- current driver licence
- current passport (Australian passports that haven't expired more than two years ago are also acceptable)

LIST B

A certified copy of a:

- birth certificate or birth extract
- Australian citizenship certificate
- a pension card issued by Centrelink that entitles the person to financial benefits.

And:

- Notice of Assessment from the Australian Taxation Office (less than 12 months old) containing your name and residential address
- letter from Centrelink regarding a government assistance payment
- rates notice from local council (less than 12 months old) containing your name and residential address
- electricity, gas or water bill dated within the past three months that contains your name and residential address.

STEP 2: CERTIFY YOUR DOCUMENTS

Take your original document(s) and a clear photocopy of both sides of the original document to an authorised person.

Your ID must be properly certified

The authorised person will need to:

1. sight the original document, and the copy, to ensure both documents are identical, and
2. write or stamp 'this is a true and correct copy of the original document I have sighted' or 'certified true copy', followed by their:
 - signature
 - printed name
 - qualification (e.g. Magistrate), and
 - date.

If you've changed your name or are signing on behalf of another member, prove the 'link' between you and the name change, or other person—use a certified copy of one of the following documents as well as your other certified ID.

PURPOSE	SUITABLE LINKING DOCUMENT
Change of name	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Marriage certificate▪ Deed poll or change of name certificate from the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages
Signing on behalf of another member	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Power of Attorney▪ Guardianship papers

When having your documents certified, remember:

- All pages must be certified.
- The copy of the document must be certified—not on a separate page attached to the document.
- Certified copies of your documents must have an original signature.
- Faxed or emailed copies won't be accepted.
- Documents not written in English must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by an accredited translator.
- Documents certified more than a year ago won't be accepted.

Who can certify your documents

Some of the people authorised to certify IDs include:

1. A person currently licensed or registered under a State or Territory law to practise in one of the following occupations:
 - Architect
 - Nurse
 - Chiropractor
 - Occupational therapist
 - Conveyancer
 - Optometrist
 - Dentist
 - Patent or Trade marks attorney
 - Financial adviser or financial planner
 - Pharmacist
 - Legal practitioner
 - Physiotherapist
 - Medical practitioner
 - Psychologist
 - Midwife
 - Veterinary surgeon.
2. One of the following persons:
 - Teacher employed full-time at a school or tertiary education institution

- Agent of the Australian Postal Corporation who is in charge of, or a permanent employee with two or more years of continuous service with, an office supplying postal services to the public
- Bank, building society, credit union or finance company officer with two or more years of continuous service
- Clerk, Master, Registrar or Deputy Registrar of a court
- Judge of a court or a Magistrate
- Justice of the Peace
- Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia, the Australian Society of Certified Practising Accountants, the Institute of Public Accountants or the Association of Taxation and Management Accountants, or a Fellow of the National Tax Accountants' Association
- Notary public, and
- Police officer.

Visit the Attorney General's website for a full list of who can certify documents.

Using foreign documents

These must be translated by an accredited translator (if they're not in English) and you must have the translated copies correctly certified by a person listed in the 'Members residing overseas' section below.

Members residing overseas

If you live overseas, the following people are authorised to certify identification documents:

- Australian Consular Officer or Australian Diplomatic Officer (within the meaning of the Consular Fees Act 1955)
- Employee of the Commonwealth or the Australian Trade Commission who is authorised and exercising his or her function in a country or place outside Australia.
- A person authorised as a notary public in a foreign country.

Your documents must be certified by a person with an Australian connection. We won't accept certifications by a someone licensed or registered to practise outside of Australia in an occupation listed above, or who holds a position in a foreign country—except for a foreign notary public.

When will my form be processed?

If you've provided a correctly completed form (and any certified ID or other paperwork required), we'll aim to process your request as soon as possible. Not providing correct information may delay us processing your request. Please allow 3-5 business days for your form to arrive. We'll contact you if we have any queries in relation to your request.

Returning your form
