Privacy statement

We recognise the importance of protecting your personal information and are committed to complying with our privacy law obligations.

We collect your personal information to administer your account, ensure you're eligible for insurance cover, provide you with UniSuper membership benefits, services and products, verify your identity and improve our products and services. You consent to our collecting sensitive information about you, where collecting that information is reasonably necessary for us to perform one or more of our functions or activities. We usually collect personal and sensitive information directly from you, however, it may also be collected from third parties, such as your employer.

We may also collect this information from you because we're required or authorised by or under an Australian law or a court/tribunal order to collect that information.

If you don't provide this information, we may not be able to administer your account, provide you with a product or service or you may be disadvantaged in some other way.

We may disclose your information to any service provider we engage (for example mail-houses, auditors, insurers, actuaries, lawyers and research consultants) to carry out or help us provide your membership benefits, services and products. This includes overseas entities. The countries we may disclose personal information to are Japan, Canada and the United States of America. Where information is transferred overseas, we'll seek to ensure the recipient of the data has security systems to prevent misuse, loss or unauthorised disclosure in line with Australian laws and standards.

Our Privacy Policy contains information about how you can access any personal information we hold, how to correct your information and how to make a complaint about a breach of the Privacy Act. It's available at unisuper.com.au or by calling us on 1800 331 685.
