

Changing your insurance cover

AVOID PROCESSING DELAYS

We make important changes to our forms at times. Check you're using the latest version by comparing the issue date at the bottom of this page with the version at unisuper.com.au/forms.

When to use this form

Use this form to cancel or to decrease your:

- ❖ Death and/or Total & Permanent Disablement (TPD) cover
- ❖ Income Protection (IP) cover.

You can also use this form to:

- ❖ increase your IP waiting period
- ❖ decrease your IP benefit period
- ❖ opt out of the six-monthly IP automatic updates (Accumulation 2 only)
- ❖ opt out of receiving default Death and TPD cover in the future.

Important information

If you cancel or decrease your insurance cover and later choose to purchase additional insurance cover, your application will be subject to acceptance by our Insurer. Our Insurer has the ability to accept, decline or impose restrictions, exclusions and/or loadings on the insurance premiums.

Income Protection cover is only available to Accumulation 1, Accumulation 2 and Personal Account members.

What can I do if I want to increase my cover?

If you'd like to:

- ❖ increase your Death, TPD and/or IP cover
- ❖ increase your IP benefit period, and/or
- ❖ decrease your IP waiting period

you'll need to apply for cover through your account online or by completing and returning the application in the Insurance in your super document available at unisuper.com.au/pds.

Privacy statement

We recognise the importance of protecting your personal information and are committed to complying with our privacy law obligations.

We collect your personal information to administer your account, ensure you're eligible for insurance cover, provide you with UniSuper membership benefits, services and products, verify your identity and improve our products and services. You consent to our collecting sensitive information about you, where collecting that information is reasonably necessary for us to perform one or more of our functions or activities. We usually collect personal and sensitive information directly from you, however, it may also be collected from third parties, such as your employer.

We may also collect this information from you because we're required or authorised by or under an Australian law or a court/tribunal order to collect that information.

If you don't provide this information, we may not be able to administer your account, provide you with a product or service or you may be disadvantaged in some other way.

We may disclose your information to any service provider we engage (for example mail-houses, auditors, insurers, actuaries, lawyers and research consultants) to carry out or help us provide your membership benefits, services and products. This includes overseas entities. The countries we may disclose personal information to are Japan, Canada and the United States of America. Where information is transferred overseas, we'll seek to ensure the recipient of the data has security systems to prevent misuse, loss or unauthorised disclosure in line with Australian laws and standards.

Our Privacy Policy contains information about how you can access any personal information we hold, how to correct your information and how to make a complaint about a breach of the Privacy Act. It's available at unisuper.com.au or by calling us on 1800 331 685.
